

RETIREMENT SALE

Now into our 26th season and fast approaching our dotage we have decided to put the restaurant on the market.

The sale offers a fantastic opportunity for a young, enthusiastic and energetic couple to take over a well established and well known destination restaurant with an excellent & repeat customer base in a beautiful part of the country.

Operating on a seasonal basis, by choice, we open for dinner from Wednesday to Saturday, (Tuesday to Sunday peak season). We seek out warmer climes in the Winter months although there is scope for weekend opening during the off season and a proven market exists for the Christmas/New year period when we used to open.

The business would be ideal for someone who is currently employed as a head chef/ sous chef together with a partner who could run the front of house and who is looking to start their first business.
